

Stage 1: Phuket - Phang Nga = 109 km

Afternoon boat trip to Phang Nga Bay

In the morning our journey begins at Siam Bike Tours Shop in Choeng Thale / Laguna. We take care of your luggage and load it on the van. After the bike fitting and the tour information, we start the first stage. We cross Sarasin Bridge and reach the mainland after 30 km. We continue cycling on a beautiful back road and enjoy the great view of Phang Nga Bay at the Samet Nangshe viewpoint. The road to Phang Nga leads us through a varied, tropical landscape. Later in the afternoon we explore the nearby Phang Nga Bay on a boat tour. With its protected mangroves and countless limestone islands, the bay has become world-famous. Of course, the "James Bond Island" with its striking and much-photographed needle rock should not be missing on the excursion. L incl.

Stage 2: Phang Nga – Ao Nang Beach / Krabi = 115 km

A short pass road meanders through across the dense jungle. On the exhilarating descent through the jungle, we reach Thap Put where we take a coffee break. We continue through plantations past many limestone mountains to Ao Nang Beach in Krabi. B | L incl.

Stage 3: Ao Nang Beach/Krabi – Koh Lanta Island = 105 km

We cycle south to Koh Lanta Island with its beautiful sandy beaches and beach resorts. We take the 20 minute ferry trip to the island. Koh Lanta Yai and Koh Lanta Noi are connected by a bridge. B | L incl.

Day 4

Rest Day at Koh Lanta Beach

The rest day offers the opportunity to sleep in, relax, swim in the hotel pool or on the white sandy beach and then let yourself be pampered with a massage. The fantastic island world tempts you to take a full day speed boat snorkelling trip which we gladly help organizing for you. B incl.

Day 5

Stage 4: Koh Lanta Island – Thung Song = 126 km

We leave the island of Koh Lanta and head east inland. We cross the Malay Peninsula on beautiful flat country roads to Thung Song. B | L incl.

Day 6

Stage 5: Thung Song – Nakhon Si Thammarat = 52 km

On today's short stage we ride to Nakhon Si Thammarat. This is a large province on the Malay Peninsula in southern Thailand, stretching from a mountainous interior to the coast of the Gulf of Thailand. The sprawling Buddhist Wat Phra Mahathat temple with its huge bell-shaped stupa is one of the many ancient and religious sites in the capital, Nakhon Si Thammarat. B | L incl.

Day 7

Stage 6: Nakhon Si Thammarat – Khanom = 108 km

Today we cycle on many deserted back roads along the coast through rubber and oil palm forests. Khanom is known for its long white sandy beach on the Gulf of Thailand. The perfect place to relax and swim. B | L incl.

Day 8

Rest Day at Khanom Beach

The rest day offers the opportunity to sleep in, relax and bathe on the white sandy beach. The beautiful and remote back roads tempt you to take another voluntary cycle tour. B incl.

Day 9

Stage 7: Khanom – Surat Thani = 89 km

Today our ride will take us to idyllic back roads past small places and varied landscapes to the provincial capital Surat Thani. The rural port capital Surat Thani is a gateway to the islands of Koh Samui, Koh Phangan and Koh Tao. The San Chao night market is home to a variety of street stalls. B | L incl.

Day 10

Stage 8: Surat Thani – Takun = 80 km

Shortly after Surat Thani we turn towards Khao Sok National Park. The rubber and oil palm forest are characteristic of this fertile area. The construction of the Ratchaprapha Dam in 1987 created a huge, rugged lake. After a refreshing swim in the hotel's large pool, there is the opportunity to marvel at the unique limestone peaks of the Khao Sok National Park on the reservoir during a boat trip. B | L incl.

Day 11: Swimming in the Indian Ocean

Stage 9: Takun – Khao Lak Beach = 119 km, first undulating then flat

We cross the Khao Sok National Park and let ourselves be enchanted again by its fairytale mountain scenery. A short climb (5%), which of course can also be mastered in the bus, leads to a perfect vantage point. The coast of the Indian Ocean awaits us in Khao Lak. Our resort is located directly on the beautiful Nangthong Beach. B | L incl.

Day 12: Epilogue

Stage 10: Khao Lak – Phuket = 95 km

We follow the main road and after 33 km we turn onto an idyllic side road. We treat ourselves to our coffee break in Thai Muang. Then all senses are rewarded again with a view of a picture book landscape. After crossing the Sarasin Bridge, we reach Thailand's largest island - Phuket – and finish with an easy spin to the Siam Bike Tours Shop. There we enjoy lunch together and toast our eventful tour. B | L incl.
